

88% of employees
say they want
better health care benefits.

It is clear that health care is the most important benefit employers can offer. Yet, as an employer you know that providing benefits through the traditional health care system is costly and cumbersome.

$210 cost to employer per urgent care clinic visit

$667 cost to employer per emergency room visit

191% Increase in employer annual health care spending since 1999*
